Dear Explorer,

Congratulations, you have entered the exploring zone!

The Explorer participates in 4-H activities to identify individual interests within 4-H. This book helps you to keep track of what you have tried.

4-H has many opportunities for explorers to experience a variety of projects like:

Baking	Hammering
Feeding	Drawing
Painting	Woodworking
Rocketry	Much, much, more...

You can learn at home, at your club meeting, at summer camp, at winter activities, and more shared at club meetings, emails or listed in the CloverLeaf. Just ask!

Enjoy and explore . . . the world of 4-H!

If you are entering other project areas: chickens, cats, canning and cakes (not a complete list)...oh my! You will need to complete project pages for those areas and attach them to this Explorer book.

My 4-H Club

Other meetings are more recreationally based like going on a hayride, playing games, or having a campfire.
