Clark County Livestock Committee Rules & Regulations

Welcome to the Clark County 4-H & FFA Livestock Market Sale Program! Any 4-H, FFA, or other state recognized group, which demands a full achievement record member[1] that is 8 years old and in 3rd grade through the age 19 (as of January 1 current year), enrolled in the beef, dairy beef, sheep, swine, rabbit, poultry and/or goat projects may participate[2]. The Clark County Livestock Executive Board will enforce all rules and regulations.

Winter/Spring Weigh-Ins

1. See individual species rules for dates and times of initial weigh-ins. The swine and poultry projects do not have initial weigh-ins but do have other requirements.
2. Premise ID numbers are required at all weigh-ins, with fair entries, and at final weigh-ins.
3. All exhibitors are encouraged to be actively involved in the feeding and fitting of their animal. All animals must be in the exhibitor's possession by the time of the initial weigh-in.
4. All animals in this project must be females or castrated males except for beef and dairy beef where only castrated males are weighed in. Animal's castration must be completed before initial weigh-in. This does not apply to rabbits or poultry.
5. An exhibitor may weigh-in animals in several species but only one animal will be allowed in the market sale.
6. See individual species rules for additional paperwork required at weigh-ins.

Requirements to Sell a Market Animal

1. Exhibitor must complete 3 educational points (rabbits must attend at least one rabbit session).
2. Exhibitor and parents must sign Livestock Agreement Form page due July 18 to UW-Extension Office.
3. Swine exhibitors and parents must also sign the Swine Agreement Signature page and return by April 23rd.
4. Exhibitor must obtain 1 bidder slip, preferable 2, and submit to UW-Extension Office by July 18.
5. Exhibitor must participate in showmanship of their animal project.
6. Further requirements of minimum / maximum weight, rate of gain, quality grades, etc. per individual species rules.

Educational Requirements (INCLUDES High School and Post High School Graduates)

Partial list of educational sessions is on the following page. Additional sessions will be printed in the 4-H Cloverleaf newsletter and emailed to youth who have submitted an email to the UW-Extension Office. In order to sell an animal in the sale all exhibitors must meet the following educational requirements:

1. Attend or complete YQCA (Youth for Quality Care of Animals) program. This is mandatory for all exhibitors and will count as one educational point.
2. Obtain 3 total educational points – one point will be from YQCA
   - ❖ Youth required to sign-in and/or sign-out at each session
   - ❖ Youth must be cognitively engaged in educational session
   - ❖ Youth attending a virtual educational session must complete a livestock verification form.
   - ❖ Session host/presenter(s) will determine if an educational credit is awarded for questionable behavior (e.g. use of cellphone during presentation, head down during presentation, physically in another location other than where the presentation is taking place, etc.) Host will place a line through the participants sign in/out form. The UW-Extension Office will notify the guardian of the youth who needs to retake an educational session for poor participation.
3. All educational sessions count as one point.
4. Educational sessions may include training sessions from outside the county with approval of species committee chair. Participant is responsible for submitting documentation to the UW-Extension Office. Examples of documentation include email/letter from FFA advisor on participation in activity, signed note from presenter or host from event, proof of placings in another show, etc.
   - ♦ Participation in educational session put on by feed companies or coops will be eligible as an educational point.
   - ♦ Exhibiting in Jackpot shows, spring preview, summer spectacular shows, or other shows will count as an educational point. You are responsible for providing proof of attendance to the Extension Clark County Office. Clark County Fair does not count.
5. All educational sessions must be completed by July 18 to be eligible for sale.

Potential Bidders and Bidder Slips

1. Buyers/bidders are integral to the market animal sale and are to be treated with the utmost respect by participants and their families. There will be ZERO TOLERANCE of any badgering, harassment, etc. of buyers by either participants or their families, including, but not limited to, parents, siblings, grandparents, and step family members. The following consequences will be instituted:

   First Offense: 100% of check goes to Livestock Sale Committee
   Second Offense: BANNED from the Clark County Livestock Sale for life and 100% of check goes to the Livestock Sale Committee

2. The bidder slip is an indication of a potential bidder; there is no obligation to purchase your sale animal.
3. Each sale participant is required to submit 1 bidder slip; 2 is recommended, by required due date to be eligible to sell.
4. Bidder Slips are available on-line at http://clark.uwex.edu/4-h-youth-development/project-area-information/livestock-market-animals/.
5. Bidder slips are due to the UW-Extension Office by July 18.

It's Fair Time!!

Fair Entry Day Weigh-Ins

1. See individual species' rules for times and dates of weigh-ins.
2. Animal's normal daily consumption of feed and water is allowed; however, animals found to be forced fed are immediately disqualified.
3. Animals must be clean at final weigh-in and remain clean prior to the sale.
   a. The species sub-committee, along with the Livestock Executive Committee, has the right to exclude an animal from the current year sale if the animal determination does not meet Herdsmanship criteria.
4. No re-weighs will be allowed!
5. Animal Drug History Forms must be completed and submitted at final weigh in for each animal. The form is available on-line at: https://clark.extension.wisc.edu/4-h-youth-development/project-area-information/livestock-market-animals/ Legal withdrawal periods for administered drugs and medicated feed must be followed. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of sale money, premiums, and awards.
6. The livestock committee can eliminate any animal showing blemishes that could cause damage to the quality of the carcass.
7. Additional paperwork required at fair weigh-in:
   a. Premise ID numbers
   b. Sheep or Beef breeding stock ID forms (if applicable)
   c. Swine - CVI (Certificate of Veterinary Inspection)
   d. Poultry - Certificate of Order form from hatchery (including hatch date) AND Copy of Associate Flock Form / WI tested flock form / NPIP form

Show and Sale General Rules

1. Showmanship
   a. In order to sell an animal, all exhibitors must participate in showmanship of their animal project.
   b. Youth must show their own animal in showmanship.
   c. Youth must have animal registered in their name and weight class.
   d. Youth must be registered for showmanship at fair entry time
2. Required dress code for market sale, supreme showmanship contest, and livestock showmanship contest:
   a. All youth should wear a modest collared shirt, jeans with no holes, and hard-soled shoes
   b. No hats will be allowed in the show ring or auction block unless medically required (documentation goes to the species chair)
   c. Sashes and crowns may NOT be worn unless that person is participating in Clark County Fairest of the Fair for the current year.
3. All animals selected for the carcass show are slaughtered.
4. The swine, rabbit, and poultry shows are terminal shows.
5. Any animal selected as either a Grand or Reserve Champion for the Livestock Sale program MUST sell if sale eligible.
   a. If an exhibitor has more than one Grand or Reserve Champion, they may select the animal to remain in the sale.
   b. Poultry and Rabbit exhibitors who have grand or reserve champion have the option to sell their non-champion large animal in the sale in lieu of their small animal.
6. Exhibitors have 30 minutes after all showing is complete to determine which animal remains in the sale.
   a. Exhibitor must contact a species committee chairperson or a member of the species committee and let them know which animal they are selling.
   b. Exhibitor must complete non-sale animal shipping slip by the end of show day.
   c. The Livestock Committee will designate your sale animal if past 30-minute time frame.
7. Only Clark County junior members, immediate family members, and project leaders may help fit animals at the fair in designated areas and exhibitors must be active in fitting the animal.
8. All livestock committee members, judges, and fair officials are integral to the market animal sale and are to be treated with the utmost respect by participants and their families. There will be ZERO TOLERANCE of any badgering, harassment, etc. of livestock committee members, judges, and fair officials by either participants or their families (including, but not limited to, parents, siblings, grandparents, and step family members). The following consequences will be instituted:

   First Offense: 100% of check goes to Livestock Sale Committee
   Second Offense: BANNED from the Clark County Livestock Sale for life and 100% of check goes to the Livestock Sale Committee

9. Participants must be present for the livestock sale and sell their own animal at their allotted sale slot. Sale participants not present forfeit their right to sell. The Livestock Executive Board will review emergencies on an individual basis.

    First Offense: 100% of check goes to Livestock Sale Committee
    Second Offense: BANNED from the Clark County Livestock Sale for life and 100% of check goes to the Livestock Sale Committee

10. Any exhibitor who misrepresents an animal (i.e. selling incorrect animal, etc.) will be held financially responsible. If they do not make compensation of animal and/or refuses to abide by the rules set forth by the Livestock Committee and Species Chair the following consequence is set in place.

    First Offense: 100% of check goes to Livestock Sale Committee
    Second Offense: BANNED from the Clark County Livestock Sale for life and 100% of check goes to the Livestock Sale Committee

11. An exhibitor shall be determined to be ineligible to sell at the Clark County Livestock Sale if s/he has sold animals in more than one county livestock sale program the previous year. This does not include state junior livestock shows or state fair sponsored events.
12. Sales commission is 8%.
    a. The 6% commission is assessed to cover costs incurred in conducting the sale, such as promotion and transportation of animals to slaughter facilities.
    b. This commission goes to the Livestock Show and Sale for educational purposes, awards, buyers social and banquet, and check off dollars.
    c. No commission will be taken from check if youth donates their check to a charity (effective 2021).
    d. The additional 2% commission is assessed to provide maintenance to the livestock barn and equipment. The funds will be kept in a separate fund and used at the discretion of the livestock committee.
13. Sale bid price on all animals will start $0.05 above established current market price.
    a. The current market price will be designated by the species committees.
    b. If no bid, or the final bid is under market price the animal remains the property of the youth.
    c. If the animal is selected for the carcass show and does not receive a bid and the exhibitor wishes to participate in the carcass show a 6% commission will be charged on the starting bid price to cover costs.
14. Once the animal is sold, it becomes the property of the buyer. However, the exhibitor has the responsibility of caring for said animal until the end of the fair on Sunday evening.
    a. Failure of the exhibitor to comply with this rule will result in a sale check deduction.
    b. The Fair Board and Livestock Committee are not responsible for the welfare of the animal.
15. Once youth have sold their sale animal the youth should find their bidder and thank them ASAP and return to their barn to re-pen or re-stall their animal in the originating barn. Failure to do so results in a deduction from the youth's sale check as per individual species' rules.
16. Sale order will be posted on Friday prior to final printing by Junior Fair Office on Dairy arena wall by 3:30 p.m. It is your responsibility to check your information and report any errors to the Extension office or Executive Committee.
17. It will be the exhibitor's financial responsibility to replace any stag (any animal found to be partially or fully uncastrated at harvest) via approval of the species committee.
18. All youth are required to turn in a buyer thank you note (or a copy) prior to receiving livestock sale check. NO EXCECPTIONS. The thank you note must be in an addressed and stamped envelope ready to mail.
19. All youth are required to submit a completed Animal Project Summary Record prior to receiving livestock sale check. NO EXCEPTIONS. The form can be found online at: https://clark.uwex.edu/market-animal-project-record-pages/. Checks will be available after the Livestock Banquet and/or must be picked up from the UW-Extension Office by September 15. If the check is not picked up by the 15th of September exhibitor forfeits sale check to the Livestock Committee.
