President's Message

Happy New Year! Hope you all had a nice Christmas. Now to get down to work again.

HCE is sponsoring a lesson on "In Case You Get Hit by a Bus"; given by Nancy Vance at the Neillsville Courthouse Auditorium at 10:30 am on January 26. Talk to your friends and neighbors and bring them along. Everyone is welcome.

Once again we are offering four $500.00 scholarships to students who have completed one year of college by June 2023 and will be going into their second year. Tell your grandchildren and friends' children to apply. It is open to all Clark County residents.

We received $600 from the 2022 Big Dreams Better Community grant from the Clark County Health Department. The money will be used to purchase bilingual books for the Dorchester Head Start program. We have been asked for a donation to the 4-H federation for their summer intern program. We will give them $1,000 to be used for the program.

I have received a request from Marshfield Clinic Home Project Opportunities. They are in need of the comfort quilts that we make. They also need flannel ice pack holders 12 x 6 1/2 for pediatrics, developmental hearts 5 to 7 inches for mothers to wear and absorb their scent and then are placed with baby in isolette/crib, freeze pop holders, changing pads 18 x 22 used in birth center. If you are interested in making any of these, contact me for more information or contact Volunteer Services-Marshfield Clinic Health System at 715-387-7198. We are going to be tying quilts at the end of January. If you are interested please contact me for the date. My cell number is 715-255-2658.

HCE day event will be on April 20 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Loyal. It will be at 6:00 pm and the speaker will be Jackie Carattini, Associated Professor, Human Development and Relationship Extension Educator from Wood County.

We are in need of a vice president, 2 more for the cultural arts committee and 3 members on international citizenship.

Your President, Lois Becker

Flu-Fighter Cookies Recipe

Ingredients

- 2^{1/4} cups all-purpose flour
- 1^{1/4} teaspoons baking powder
- 3/4 teaspoon baking soda
- 3/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon freshly grated nutmeg
- pinch of ground cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 stick unsalted butter, at room temperature
- 1 cup packed dark brown sugar
- 2 large eggs
- 1/4 cup molasses
- 1/4 cup low-fat plain Greek yogurt
- 1 tablespoon freshly grated ginger
- 2 teaspoons finely grated lemon zest (about 1 lemon)
- 1/2 cup old-fashioned oats
- 1^{1/4} cups golden raisins
- 1^{1/4} cups dried cranberries
- 1^{1/4} cups roughly chopped walnuts, toasted

Directions

- 1. Line two large baking sheets with parchment paper. Whisk the flour, baking powder, baking soda, cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves, and salt in a medium bowl.
- 2. Beat the butter and brown sugar in a large bowl with a mixer on medium speed until light and fluffy, 3 minutes. Beat in the eggs one at a time, fully incorporating each before adding the next. Add the molasses, yogurt, ginger, and lemon zest and beat until smooth, scraping the sides of the bowl as needed. Reduce the mixer speed to low and beat in the flour mixture to make a sticky batter (do no overmix). Fold in the oats and half of the raisins, cranberries, and walnuts. Mix the remaining dried fruit and nuts in a small bowl and set aside.
- 3. Drop heaping tablespoons of batter onto the prepared baking sheets. Top each with some of the reserved dried-fruit-and-nut mixture and chill for 30 minutes. Meanwhile, preheat the oven to 375 degrees.
- 4. Bake the cookies until dark golden but still soft, 10 to 12 minutes; cool on a rack. Store in an airtight container for up to one week.
