Leaders Federation Meeting Minutes

Happy June Everyone,

Attendance: Lori, Alan, Rachel, John, Jennie, RJ and Nikki.

Meeting called to order at 7:01 pm.

The secretary's report was read and needed some tweaking. I forgot to add Jarrett Rueth to the attendance at last month's meeting. Correction was made and noted. Minutes were approved after addition.

The Treasurer's report was reviewed and approved.

Old Business

4-H Yard Signs are available at the Extension office.

Platbooks- moving along as planned, down a few ads from years past

4-H Bowling Night- 44 youth attended, 62 games were bowled and 9 pizzas were consumed. A great turn out I would say.

Kickball- July 18th at 9 am in Greenwood, hotdogs, chips and water provided. A dish to share would be welcomed but not required. Bring the whole family.

Brewers Bus is a go!! 80 people signed up- look for an email from Seth for more information

WI Key Award Committee will meet July 20th at 6pm at the Clark County Fair Grounds, in the dining hall

Green Thumb Challenge- get your planters out and fill them with blooming flowers or even crops. Don't forget to register with the extension office for a spot on the map or pick your own spot.

New Business

Swimming Event will be held on July 25th from 4-8 pm at Thorp's Aquatic Center. Free for all 4-H families.

Fall Family Fun Day- A monetary donation will be made to Seth's Memorial Tractor Ride in the amount of $250.00 from Clark County 4-H Leaders Federation. No fall event planned.

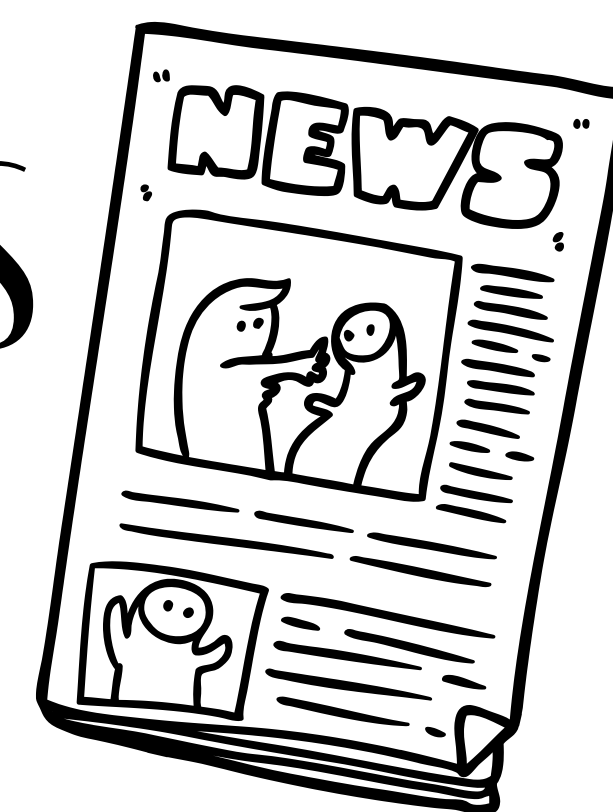

Annual Fairgrounds Revitalization Project Fundraiser- Leaders Federation voted on creating a basket.

Lori will purchase items for basket, with the limit to be up to $125.00.

All clubs are asked to create a basket for 2026, all proceeds will purchase goat pens.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:58 pm.

Next Meeting is an All Leaders Meeting at Loyal City Hall on July 13th at 7pm.

Lucky Clovers June 15, 2026

Mr. Vice President called a short meeting to order at 7:35 pm in the kitchen. Secretary's report was read in an abbreviated style. Report approved. The Treasurer's report was given. We have a balance of $3266.19. Jesse moved to approve with a second from Alexa. Motion carried.

Old Business

Reports were given from Charlie and Arthur on the fundraiser. The check for the club was presented. Josiah handed out tips to members who helped out. Josiah reported on the county bowling event.

Due to the unexpected price for door prizes and ice cream, Jesse made a motion for the club to reimburse up to $90, covering the price of the purchases. Motion seconded by Arthur and carried.

The club talked about what tour would work in August. Nasonville Dairy was brought up. Get your fair stuff submitted today! (Its the 18th and I just sent mine in (The deadline ins the 22nd). Submit confirmation email to Susan.

New Business

Alexa moved to have a a potluck meeting at Rock Dam, July 27th, 6:30pm. Motion seconded by Charlie and carried.

Jesse moved to have the end of summer Fortfest on August 17th, at the Smoker's. Potluck starting at 6:00pm, and then the tour. Motion seconded by Charlie, thirded by Arthur and fourthed by Ella. Motion carried.

Our Secretary read the Overseas Ambassador report.

The club sang happy birthday to Timothy, Charlie, and Alexa. The acoustics were Surprising.

Alexa moved and Neveah seconded that the meeting be adjourned. Motion carried at 7:35 pm.

Next Meeting: July 27th pm, Rock Dam

Submitted by: Josiah Smoker, Secretary

ChickQuest

Session 1:

We will be learning about how eggs grow during incubation and discussing types of egg-laying animals. We will test humidity and temperature to determine where to best grow eggs.

Session 2:

We will be discovering the parts of an egg and determining how to measure them through many different methods.

Session 3:

We will be designing and creating egg catchers to protect eggs when falling. We will test our hypotheses to find out which method works best.

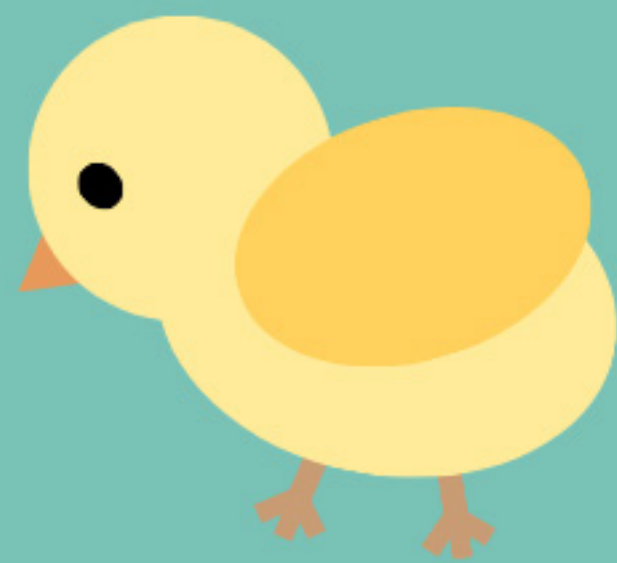

Session 4:

We will practice communication skills by working as a team to develop a commercial for multiple egg brands.
