4-H is for FAMILY!

4-H is where adults help young people explore their potential. It is where important relationships between adults and young people are developed. It's where the talents and interests of kids and adults come together are shared and expanded. It is where families together can experience hands-on activities in a variety of interest areas.

4-H youth programs is a learning by doing program.

4-H helps youth develop:

Competence, Confidence, Character, Connection, Caring, and Contribution.
